#YOLO

There's this really popular word recently.

WOOHOO!

It's called...

I see it mostly used under the spectacular photos of some friends of mine.

You Only Live Once

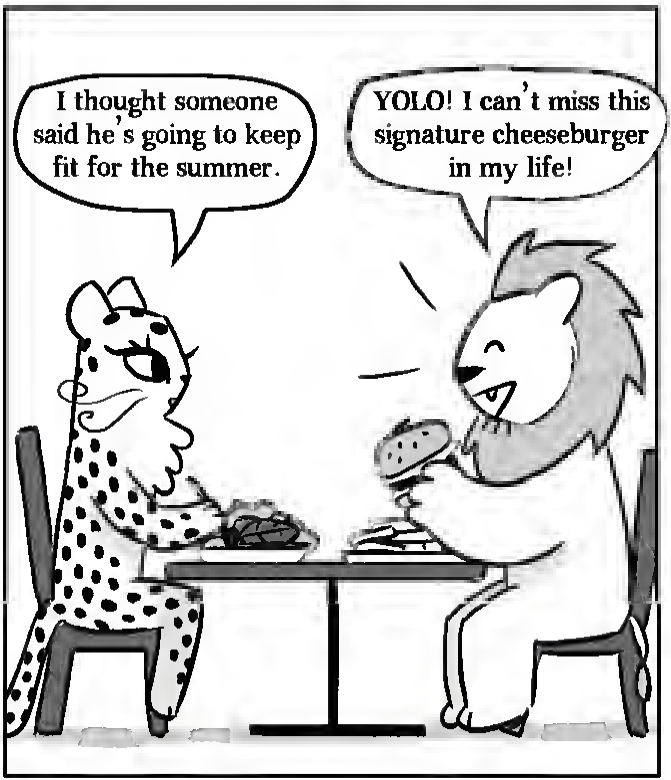
HERE LIES AN AVERAGE ANIMAL WHO HAD A LOT OF FUN IN ITS SHORT LIFE
HERE LIES AN ANIMAL HERO WHO SAVED A LOT OF LIVES



I thought someone said he's going to keep fit for the summer.
YOLO! I can't miss this signature cheeseburger in my life!

We are all going to live once, so remember...

I'm not reading from but I am from Slovakia. We don't seem to have national animal but I reckon chamois (mountain goat) would be a good choice or maybe brown bear and marmot. Go on Bonnie let's see the cross put in the middle of nowhe- ahem. Europe.

Readers from Slovakia!

There is no national animal in Slovakia. The Tatra chamois lives in the Tatra Mountains and Low Tatrasin in Slovakia. They are critically endangered in the wild because of hunting, but there are also efforts in conservation.
